The Corsets for the Present-Day Styles

Women's clothes no longer fit in the old acceptation of the word—they hang, they drape, they enfold, with a carelessness that is the more studied as it seems the less studied.

In this day of grace a dress that fits does not fit.

We are thinking differently.

The human form is a/beautiful thing in the same measure as it is free and healthy and robust and natural.

A style that hurts health is wrong; it cannot be beautiful.

A binding corset hurts health.

It is a vise and a vice.

Who would revert to the corset of twenty years ago?

What will the corset of twenty years hence be? Women's clothes no longer fit in the

hence be

hence be?
Doubtless an improvement on today's corsets—and along the same lines.
It is because we are awake to this awakening of thought on the corset
question that we have gone at the corset business in such a serious way.

We are not here to sell a corset as we would a paper of pins.

With us it is not a piece of merchandise that costs so much to make and must be sold for so much.

There is the other side.

The corset is a vital factor in woman's everyday life—her health, her comfort are involved.

Ours is a Corset-Service Department,

Ours is a Corset-Service Department, in which the mercantile end is made to subserve the professional.

That is our idea of the corset business.

How do we carry it out; how do we put it into practice?

The Corset Department as you see it today is the answer.

It is in the charge of Miss Bliley.
And there is no doubting her ability.
She has the fervor of the artist, the experience that makes an expert.
She thinks of corset-fitting as a surgeon does of his profession.
She has studied.

She has studied.
She knows.
There can be no such thing as the wrong corset for your figure. If she has not the right one, she will tell you so.
But as the skilled surgeon employs the most improved instruments, so does Miss Billey choose corsets—as instruments to help to the end for which corsets are made—health, comfort and style.

Silver, even for the staidest uses, radiales in our sho the glamour that nothing but class can produce—the which is built on uncompromising material, the finest work-ship, and the designs of artists.

The vegetable dishes, for instance, carry none of the oach of the purely practical save in the strength of their truction; for they are things of beauty.

Allen's Beauty Show

Good News of the Good Gowns Shown

The beautiful models have gone, but the fine setting that comes near to making a beauty of every woman is still within your reach.

Every handsome garment shown in our Fashion exhibit is for-sale. They were brought here to sell—not merely to demonstrate, as many believed. You saw the gown that you like—saw it properly worn—saw it in its full beauty—at splendid advantage.

The same grace and fascinating influence may be yours. The gown or hat is yours, and there is only one of a kind. We do not duplicate in our finest dresses, suits, coats and millinery.

Greatest Corset Event Ever Shown South

The afternoon of yesterday was given up to our corset department. Truly, such a department deserves a day of its own, and with the aid of the orchestra it was indeed an entertaining event.

An ovation of appreciation was given the young models showing corsets, lingerie and negligee, especially the demonstration of the dancing corsets of soft lines.

Miss Brown, who instructs and explains the use or misuse of fine corsets, will be with us all the week. She will talk to you personally about the vital things you would know.

Style

Style is a gift and cannot be taught. It is no one thing, but the sum of many important things. Most brands of corare built by experts who are taught a system, who are taught a system, but who are without an instinct for originality. They probably appear to be values but are absolutely lacking in redeeming touches of distinction—Style.

In a Corset

Style betrays itself entirely by the sweep of its lines.

All that other corset designers aim to give you, Modart gives you. A Modart corset on your figure is proof of the vast differ-ence between the average cor-

Conductors' Contest Closes Saturday Evening, October 4th, at 7 P. M.

Only three more days left in which to claim that $100, and t Sunday will declare the most popular conductor in Atlanta.

Beware of your opponent, as he is likely to spring a big surprise before this contest closes.

Not one of the five prizes has been won yet, and the man who wins is the one who will put in some long hours during the next three days:

Realize On Your Prospects

Do not wait until the last minute, thinking that all of the subscriptions promised you are good. They may deceive you and cause you to lose the big cash prize.

During the remainder of this week contestants should have any one of their friends available to assist them.

All ballots must be voted before 7 o'clock next Saturday evening.

It's going to be a close fluish and defeat is liable to conto the most unexpected. Call at The Circulation Department of The Atlanta Constitution daily and keep in touch with the race.

Ask Yourself This:

IN CONSIDERING THE SELECTION IN CONSIDERING THE SELECTION of a depository for your own or your Company's funds, what better protection could you ask than the reputation of a bank for nearly half a century of uninterrupted business? What security could you desire beyond the $10,000,000.00
Resources shown by the ATLANTA
NATIONAL BANK! And what better service could you wish for than can be claimed for this bank by any or all of its 12,000 depositors?
The officers of this institution will be glad to communicate with those desiring to open a new account or to extend their banking relations.
